Type Your Question or Reply
in this Area of the Word Processor.

When clicking on the "New Topic" button in the appropriate area of the forum or the "Post Reply" button you will be taken to a word processor. In this word processor you will be able to type in your "New Topic" or "Post Reply". If you are in the area where you are going to start a new topic, you will have to type your topic in the "subject line".

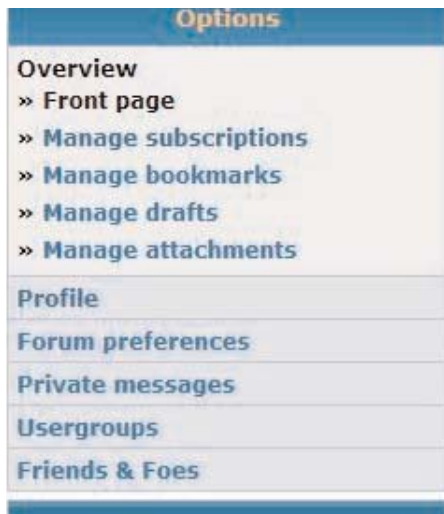

Once you have finished typing your question or reply. You can hit the “Preview” button to read over what you have typed and make sure it reads the way you want it to. If you hit the “Preview” button, the preview will appear on top of the word processor. You will have to scroll to the top of the screen to read it.

Then whenever you are happy with what you have wrote just click the “Submit” button and you are finished with your post.

When in the “Board Index” you can also mange your information from the “User Control Panel” just click on that to get to your profile manager and soforth.

On the left is what will come up when you click on the “User Control Panel”.

You can click on Profile or any of the options and fill in whatever information you would like.

I highly recommend the profile at least. Also if you fill in the signature part of the profile that will automatically be put at the end of all of your posts. You will not have to sign everything.

After you fill in any of this informatin just hit the “Submit” button or “Save” button to finish.
